Susanne Schmid

Susanne Schmid

Leaders have a clear vision of a desirable future. Together with their team, they bring this vision to life. They set the goals in such a way that the path to the vision becomes recognizable, tangible and measurable.

Supporting them in this, is Susanne's passion.

Susanne Schmid is of German origin and has lived and worked for many years in Australia, Belgium and Venezuela.

With over 30 years of experience in international business, she offers a wide range of methods to help companies, teams and individuals overcome their business and personal challenges.

Leadership development, coaching and consulting, change management, new skills training and co-creating the future in workshops are all offerings that Susanne developed specifically for the individual situation and specific business goals.
